SUNDAYS IN LENT: During the Sundays in Lent the message given during worship will be a dialogue sermon with Lyle interviewing people of the Bible. Today we will hear Thomas, portrayed by Joe Elkins. The following people from the Bible will appear in worship at these dates: March 22 Mary Magdalene (Pam Blessing), March 29 The Paralytic (Ryan Crismore & Dewey Randall), April 5 Lazarus (Eric Blessing). We hope and pray you can be present for these worship services and learn more, first-hand, from these famous people of the Bible.

BROWN BAG BIBLE STUDY – Next Wednesday will be the final class of “If You Want to Walk on Water, You Have to Get Out of the Boat” based on the book of the same name by John Ortberg. The class will meet in the lounge from 12:10 pm to 12:50 pm.

SEDAR MEAL

On Maundy Thursday, April 9, at 6:30 pm, we will be celebrating a Seder Meal in our fellowship hall. This meal is one in which our Jewish sisters and brothers recall, retell, and reenact the early history of their ancestors. This meal also allows us to pray and share in food and fellowship the problem of all who are downtrodden and struggle for liberty and equality. First United Methodist Church of Bluffton and Calvary Lutheran of Bluffton will also join us for this special service. During the Seder Meal we will break for a meal of chicken and all the fixings. Holy Communion will also be served and a choir from all three churches will be performing. A sign-up sheet will be available in the narthex. Please remember this date and allow it to be one of your highlights during Holy Week.
